Dear Mr. Teplitz,

The presentation entitled "Your Management Power and Managing Your Stress: How to Relax and Enjoy," which you gave to the Director's Council of the Financial Management Service was excellent. All of the Directors that I talked to after the presentation felt it was well worth their time and a very enjoyable morning. I believe that your ability to involve the audience was perhaps the most outstanding aspect of the feedback received.

Thank You for agreeing to provide us with your very unique material. My regret is that I personally had to miss your inspirational session. I, on behalf of the Director's Council, look forward to working with you again in the future.

Respectfully,

Phillip R. Baldwin
